

Cookie Policy

1. Introduction & Scope

This Cookie Policy ("Policy") from Amega Capital Ltd (the "Provider") outlines the use of cookies when interacting with our services, particularly for trading Contracts for Difference (CFDs). It complements our Terms and Conditions and should be read alongside those documents. This Policy also emphasizes our responsibility to safeguard the privacy and security of personal and financial information for all users—current, former, and prospective clients.

2. What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small data files sent from our website to your computer, where they are stored in your web browser. They cannot transfer viruses or malware; instead, they track user activities and store information for record-keeping. We utilize cookies to gather data about your website usage, which helps maintain your session while browsing. Session cookies expire when your browsing session ends.

3. Why Cookies Are Useful

We employ cookies to enhance website performance and analyze visitor behavior, enabling us to address issues promptly. Cookies help us identify popular pages and referral sources, improving customer experience and future advertising campaigns. They can also store login information, streamlining access to the Client Area. Additionally, cookies facilitate secure site operations by remembering user preferences and ensuring reliable functionality.

Specifically, our cookies assist in:

- Verifying user identity and location
- Checking browser type and device
- Tracking referral sources
- Customizing third-party content

4. Types of Cookies We Use

- Functional Cookies: Essential for website operations, expiring after each session to enable navigation and login verification.
- Analytical Cookies: Collect anonymous data on visitor behavior to enhance user experience, including behavioral cookies that deliver relevant content.
- Promotional Cookies: Track users across websites to deliver personalized ads, benefiting third-party advertisers and publishers.
- Preference Cookies: Save user preferences, such as language or region settings.
- Google Analytics: We use Google Analytics to place analytical cookies on your device, which track usage patterns. Google may share data with third parties as required by law. By using our site, you consent to Google's data processing practices.

5. Manage Cookies

You can delete cookies through your browser settings at any time. Please note that disabling cookies may affect website functionality, including access to the Client Area.

For more information on controlling cookies, visit www.aboutcookies.org. Our website does not currently respond to Do Not Track (DNT) requests, which some browsers may enable to prevent tracking.

6. Additional Information

For questions or concerns regarding our cookie use, please contact us at support@fundix.pro. We prioritize your data security and encourage you to review our Privacy Policy for further information on our data handling practices.
